SECTION D: TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Terms and Conditions

In submitting an application for the Rafael Moreno Scholarship, the applicant agrees to abide by each of the terms and conditions below, upon and following the award of a scholarship.

Applicants will be notified of the Scholarship Panel's decision, which is final in all cases and not subject to discussion or review. Applicants may, however, resubmit an application for another training course in the future.

ChiBall World Pty Ltd reserves the right to use the winners' names, photographs and opinions in future publicity or promotional material, and by submitting an application the applicant consents to such use.

What does the Rafael Moreno Scholarship provide?

- One tuition, free of charge, for a ChiBall Teacher Training course
- Support from Master Trainers should it be required

Responsibilities/Expectations:

If you are awarded a scholarship, you are responsible for:

- Preparation study via distance learning for the Teacher Training course (7-day Practical Intensive or other)
- On-line enrolment / Registration
- Completing and passing the course of study undertaken
- Notifying the ChiBall Head Office of any relevant changes to information given on your application form.
- Understanding the vision and core values of ChiBall World and embodying them at all times.
- Writing and submitting an article (approximately 800 words) within 10 days after the Teacher Training course. The emphasis should be on your experience and learnings, and how they will help you to contribute to society/community. Scholarship recipients will also be asked to submit an article one year after the training to follow-up on their experience and accomplishments.
